Holi Celebrations-2019

DOC201903190003

Date: 19th March 2019
Venue- Foyer Academic Block

Time: 10:00AM Onwards

Holi, the Festival of Colours was celebrated with great enthusiasm at RNB Global University on the 19th March 2019.

In account of World Water day (22nd March), all the students watered the plants in the university lawn and then assembled in the academic foyer for the Holi celebration. While addressing the students, Mr. K.K. Bajaj, Vice Chairman, RNB Global University, congratulated the students who voluntarily participated in the Bikaner theatre festival 2019 and shared the souvenir of the BTF with the students. After few energetic performances by the students on stage on the tunes of Holi songs, they exchanged Holi greetings with each other. At the end the dance floor was open for the students.

Truly Holi not only strengthens the bond of unity but it also makes us stronger as a family. It was a great experience for everyone as the festival of Holi signifies the coming together of different communities and the celebration of the spirit of universal brotherhood.

Introduction

RNB Global University organized a special programme to commemorate the 24th International Women's Day on 8th March 2019.

The program began with speech by Ms. Apoorva Soni, B. Sc-IV, in which she pointed out to certain problems which women are facing in society, like women getting molested, the falling sex ratios, school dropouts, unwanted dowry related death, and especially atrocity towards women. The speech was followed by heart touching poetry by Mr. Bharat Tawania, Student of BBA-IV semester. Ms. Mandakani Joshi, Theatre artist and Radio Announcer, Akashvaani was the chief guest of the function. During her inaugural speech, she advised women to scale new heights in all the aspects of life. She also said that woman is the life giver to the whole human race and it is the responsibility of everyone to give her a respectable status and honour in society.

Dr. Nidhi Sharma, Gynaecologist, Associated with Fortis and SMS Jaipur, discussed important issues pertaining to women's health to have an understanding of breast cancer and the gynaecologic side effects. She also discussed many dimensions of Women health that addresses the special health care needs of women. It includes conditions more common, different, or unique to women. The program was then followed by Skit performed by Students of science and technology and dance performance by B.Sc. IV Semester students.

The program ended with the vote of thanks proposed by Ms. Pooja Singh, student of B.Sc-II semester, with the pledge to celebrate and salute women by looking at her as an individual; a wonderful person; independent of relationships against the prevailing paradigms of stereotypes, idolization and sacrifices!

Introduction

National Science Day

“The Science of Today is the Technology of Tomorrow”.

– Edward Teller

National Science Day is celebrated every year in India on the 28th February to commemorate the invention of ‘The Raman Effect’ by the veteran Indian Physicist, Sir C.V. Raman who was the first scientist to be honoured by Nobel Prize in the Subject of Physics in 1930. In 1986, the National Council for Science and Technology Communication (NCSTC) asked the Government of India to designate 28 February as National Science Day and the first National Science Day was celebrated on February 28, 1987.

Importance

RNBGU celebrated National Science Day on 28th February, 2019 on theme declared by Govt.of India “Science for the people & people for the science”. National Science Day was planned to highlight how Science and Technology has touched our every sphere of life. The major idea of the celebration was to discuss how science has made live comfortable along with the implementation of new technologies for the development in the field of science.

Technical Session

The programme was inaugurated with speech by student high-lighting the importance of Raman Effect and its application in present day technologies. Mr. Brij Gopal Vyas, Retd. Superintending Engineer PHED gave Keynote address and explained how science is important to us.

Dr.Shilpi Garg from BITS Pilani gave an innovative presentation on Bio mimicry and explained how characteristics present in plants, animals or in nature has provided new entrepreneurship ideas with economic values e.g. Gecko Climbing Feet, Kingfisher-Inspired Bullet Train. She explained how designers, architects and engineers are taking cues from nature when they set out to create buildings, trains, prosthetics, robots and fashionable accessories.

Technical Skit

The most entertaining part of the day was the skit performed by the students of B.Sc Biotech, B.Tech and B.Sc. Agri. in which they raised question on Superstitions and beliefs of people and shows how Science removes these disbeliefs from Society.

Moving further Dr. Pushpendra Pratap Singh and Dr. Manoj Sanwal inspired the students about the importance of Science and motivated students for better future in science by explaining scientific inventions are affecting human life.

Students Debate and Poster

In the last but not the day included the Myriad of competitions like posters, debates etc.in which students participated with full zeal and enthusiasm and winners were awarded certificates to the following students:

- 1 Rubal Sharma B.Tech (CSE) IInd Semester
- 2 Anu Sethia B.Sc. Biotech IInd Semester
- 3 Ravi and Hemant B.Tech (ME) VIth Semester

The programme ended with vote of thanks. In this way the students enjoyed National Science Day as a Fest

Dhanteras Celebration-2018

DOC201811050003

Date: 5th November, 2018
Venue- Foyer, Admin Block

Time: 09:30 AM onwards

Dhanteras was celebrated at RNB Global University with full energy and enthusiasm. The University was decorated with colourful diyas and traditional motifs of Rangoli were designed to welcome the Goddess Laxmi and Lord Kuber. The celebration began with Poojan of Lord Ganesh and Goddess Laxmi by Dignitaries, Registrar, Deans, Faculty Members and the students of the University.

Students were dressed up like Rama, Seeta, Raavan, Hanuman, etc for Raamleela Manchan in front of the large audience. Seeing students perform on stage, everyone was ecstatic. For the audience, it was a refreshing change from the usual Ramayana and everyone was laughing and rolling on the floor. Fun it got to be as they started their dialogue delivery on the stage. The most unforgettable and cute moment was to see a young Hanuman ji coming on the stage, trotting his way, totally in love with his pooch. The students did stutter, adding a hilarious touch of exclusivity to their Ramleela, but never did they let their enthusiasm fail them. The stuttering dialogue deliveries endeared them and the characters that they played a lot more! All in all, it was not only worth praising act, but also a different one with added cuteness to it.

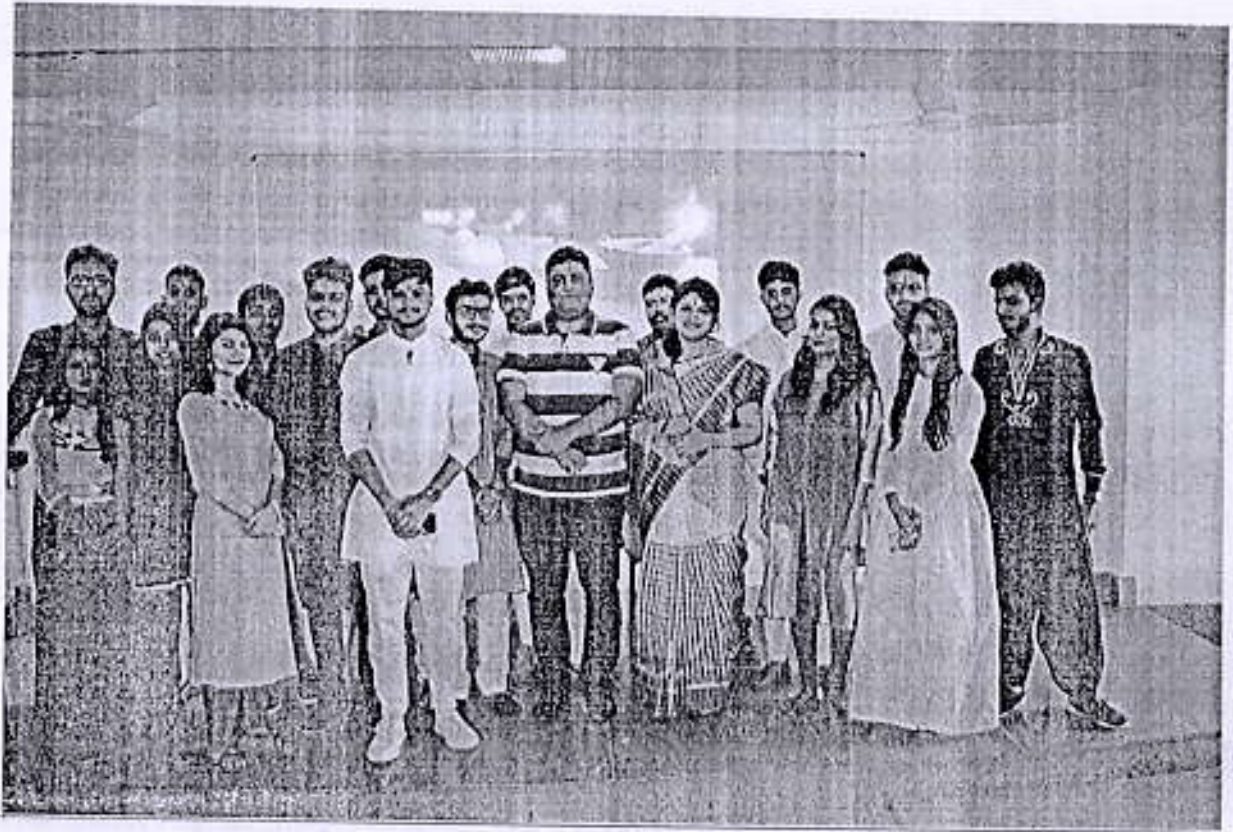

Vice Chairman Mr. Vikram Bajaj and Mrs. Kanta Bajaj were the chief Guests of the function. Mr. Bajaj addressed the students and added to the festive mood by his warm and bright words explaining the holy series of festival. During his enlightening speech, he motivated the students to win the inner Raavan of life and make the occasion celebration in real séance.

Nukkad Natak on Gandhi Jayanti-2018

DOC201810020001

Date: 02nd October 2018
Venue- Bhraman Path & JNV Colony Bikaner

Time: 04:30 AM onwards

"Cleanliness Is Next to Godliness." – Mahatma Gandhi.

RNB Global University embarked on an extensive drive to educate and inspire residents of Bikaner to promote the cleanliness among the entire city, state and country. Students of Event Forum of RNB Global University, organized a series of Nukkad Natak to create social awareness in the different parts of Bikaner on 2nd October 2018 on the eve of Gandhi and Shastri Jayanti.

In a bid to enhance awareness about the importance of cleanliness, on daily life among the common people, RNBian's decided to use visual medium to draw everyone's attention. Elaborating on this, one of the organisers of this awareness endeavour, says, "We have organized many street plays today at different locations of the city of Bikaner. The idea is to strike a connect with the people through these plays and that's the reason why we have chosen some of the busiest streets in the city to stage these plays." The theatrical campaign begins at 5 PM and ends at 7 PM. Each play highlighted different issues related to cleanliness. Students communicated the message that Clean and green makes perfect scene in the country and this is by which we can achieve the dream of mahatma Gandhi- Father of Nation.

These apart, students are also planning to reach to people and market places to create awareness for cleanliness and inculcate this in their habits.

The main purpose of this idea was to connect with people and for this, some of the busiest streets in the city were selected to stage the same. The message that conveyed was that "clean and green makes perfect scene in the country" and this is by which we can achieve the dream of Mahatma Gandhi of clean India. Four places were selected for the same which were - Junagarh, Bhramanpath, Vijay shopping mall and JNV colony.
